1)	BOOK Immigrant Women: A Road to the Future	Published in 2003, this book was compiled by a group of Mexican indigenous, Salvadoran, and Southeast Asian (Hmong, Lao) women who came together to share and exchange cultural experiences and learn about one another's struggles in order to begin to think more deeply about the roles of immigrant women in the Central Valley.		$10.00	$
2)	BOOK Symposium on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples of the Americas	Released in 2005, this book documents the historic gathering and dialogues that took place between indigenous peoples from the Americas (Mexico and California) during a symposium held in July of 2004 in Fresno, CA. Key topic areas include Culture and Development , and Territory and Mobility , with emphasis on the need to promote active citizenship, cultural understanding, and further collaboration among the two communities.		$15.00	$
3)	DVD Sharing Our Silence, Youth Digital Stories	Seven Central Valley youth share their powerful stories of culture, oppression, self-identity and hope in digital stories they wrote and produced. Through photographs, musical pieces, artwork, and other forms of media, these stories tell how young roots today are grappling with the major issues facing this new generation. Release year: 2005		$15.00	$
4)	DVD En Busca/In Search of a Future	En Busca de un Futuro , or In Search of a Future in English, is a digital story helps us understand not only the effects that the ICE raids have on the families of those who are detained, but how such raids can affect the community as a whole. The story is told from the perspective of a local indigenous immigrant activist, who shares her story of living a quiet life in Oaxaca and then leaving that life for the promise of better opportunities in the United States.		$15.00	$
5)	DVD From Our Roots PAR project	From our Roots , or Desde Nuestras Raices in Spanish, is a digital story produced by the Pan Valley Institute of the American Friends Service Committee and the PAR Team. This digital story helps us see inside the process of immigrant's integration and the cultural conflicts they encounter in such process.		$15.00	$

6)	BOOK Latino Immigrant Civic and Political Participation in Fresno and Madera California	The Latino Immigrant Civic and Political Participation in Fresno and Madera Counties report is part of a series on Latin American immigrant civic and political participation that looks at nine cities around the United States. The reports on each city describe the opportunities and barriers Latino immigrants face in participating as civic and political actors in cities around the United States.		FREE
